
The (not so) silent revolution

What this extended trial of remote work means for businesses

Paukovics Gábor

Business & Service Design Manager

gabor.paukovics@kinnarps.com

What you need to remember about us

Our services

professional solutions for

- interior design
- workplace research
- change management
- consultancy

Our products

furniture solutions for

- offices
- home offices
- education and care institutions

A narrow wooden walkway between two dark wooden buildings leading to a lake. The buildings have horizontal wooden siding and dark windows. The walkway is made of light-colored wooden planks. In the background, a body of water is visible under a grey, overcast sky. The text "#IDK" is overlaid in orange, and "I don't know" is overlaid in white below it.

#IDK

I don't know

THE NEW NORMAL IS COMING...

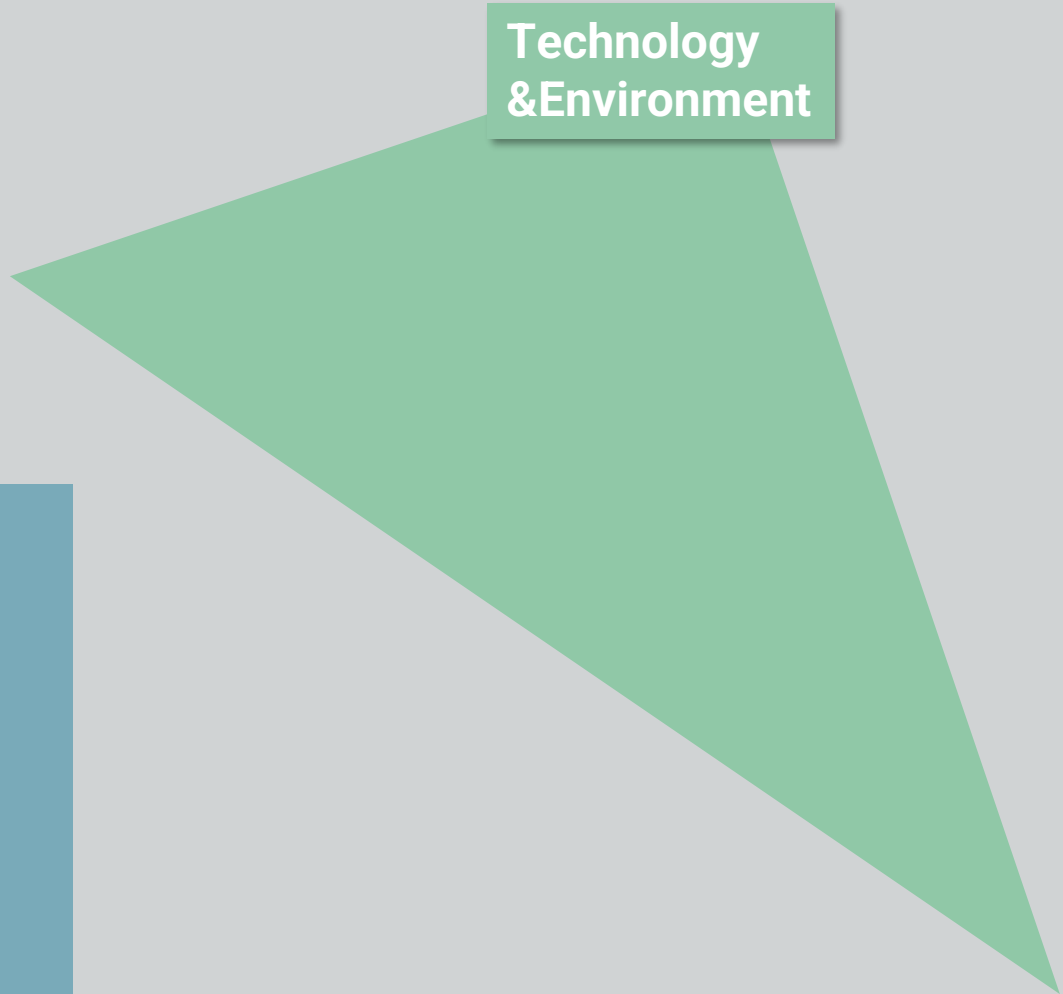

What do you mean I don't have my own desk?

Business Success & Desires

Technology & Environment

People needs & Limitations

The “Your Office Research”

2021

“Remote work has been negative and broken”

“High attendance in person meetings used to increase motivation... the opposite is true online.”

“Talented employees will be harder to retain in the future”

Top challenges
for businesses before covid

Hiring new talent → 67%

Talent
retention → 60%

PAST

Top challenges
for businesses
during covid

Employee motivation

~1/3 of respondents

PRESENT

Top challenges expected after covid

Talent
retention

Hybrid work

FUTURE

EVERY 2nd RESPONDENT

thinks, that

HR SHOULD BE INVOLVED IN

all office related questions

THE REST IS YET TO COME

